The Düben Heath Nature Park is a range of specially selected attractions for nature travelers and great place to stay for citizens.

The Bad Düben town is a gate to the Nature Park Düben Heath (Naturpark Dübener Heide). The park was named after the town. The park covers about 770 square kilometers and is bounded by Elbe and Mulde rivers. Here you can find many health spas and learn more about wildlife. The chance to see wildlife is one of the most exciting things about visiting the Nature Park. One of the best way to explore the natural beauty of the park is on foot or by bicycle, allowing you to take your time, observe wildlife and enjoy the nature. The new Nature Park House presents a multimedia exhibition focused on wildlife, civic engagement and climate change.
